1:1 Laptop program

This article from "t/h/e/Journal" supports our amazing 1:1 laptop program.

"If we allow them (students)to have these opportunities to harness this technology to personalize their learning, dig deeper in certain subjects, and find real world connections to apply their learning to while they're going through school, they're going to be better prepared for their futures, and they'll be able to provide a better future for us, as well."

Young People's Theatre Guild
