

Catholic School Week

Catholic Schools Week is a yearly celebration of Catholic education in the United States. It's led by the National Catholic Educational Association (NCEA). What is celebrated during Catholic Schools Week? The value of Catholic education for young people. The contributions of Catholic schools to the church, communities, and nation. The role of Catholic schools in passing along the faith to the next generation. Why do we celebrate Catholic Schools Week? Catholic schools are committed to developing the whole child, including their mind, body, and soul. Catholic schools provide a safe learning environment, character development, and challenging academics.
